

Nordea Investment Management AB appoints new CEO

Jessica Malmfors has been appointed CEO of Nordea Investment Management AB with effect 1st July 2015. Her appointment comes together with her taking over the heading of a new Governance unit that will work with various legal and governance matters within our organisation.

“By appointing Jessica in the this new role, we will be drawing upon her strong experience and track record from the Nordic fund industry and her deep insight into the regulatory framework governing the asset management industry”, says Christian Hyldahl, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Nordea Investment Management AB.

About Jessica Malmfors

Jessica Malmfors has more than 13 years' experience from the financial industry and has worked as CEO for Skandia Fonder AB and as Legal Counsel for Skandia Insurance Company Ltd. Jessica started her career working with general corporate law for Wistrand Lawfirm. The last two years Jessica has worked as a consultant for Nordea Asset Management on strategic projects including the establishment of Nordea Funds Ltd.

Jessica holds a bachelor of Laws from Uppsala University.